Grandex

Acrylic solid surface

Thermoformable acrylic solid surface - seamless, repairable, hygienic.
Nine collections and about 95 decors for curved, seamless design.

01 — BRAND & MATERIAL

Brand & material

Grandex® is a thermoformable acrylic solid surface built around seamless fabrication, repairability, hygiene and complex curved forms. The manufacturer currently describes nine collections and about 95 decors. It is at its best where seamless joins and thermoformed geometry matter — and unlike rigid stone, minor scratches can simply be sanded and polished out.

Why Grandex

- Seamless & sculptural — at its strongest where invisible joins and thermoformed, curved geometry matter.
- Repairable, not stone — don't compare its heat/scratch behaviour directly with Dekton or quartz without weighing its repairability.
- Live stock varies — distributor inventory can hold more (or older) designs than the headline palette; ask us for current stock.

Best-fit applications

- Kitchen countertops and islands
- Integrated sinks and washbasins
- Bathroom vanities and shower surrounds
- Curved reception desks and bars
- Healthcare and food-service surfaces
- Furniture and partitions

03 — SPECIFICATION & APPLICATION

Specification & application

Composition	Acrylic resin about 38%, pigments under 1% and additives under 3%; mineral filler forms the remaining major component
Sheet dimensions	1/2, 1/3 and 1/4 inch sheet thicknesses in various lengths
Seamlessness	Colour-matched adhesives create visually continuous joints
Thermoforming	Heating enables curved, three-dimensional forms
Repairability	Minor scratches and damage can be sanded and polished out
Warranty	The current European manufacturer site states a 15-year warranty

Fabrication must follow the current GRANDEX manual. Heat, chemical and scratch behaviour depends on application and finish. Confirm exact decor codes and stock against the current distributor list. Research snapshot, August 2026.
